Come — all who from your hearts be - lieve that — in the foun - tain filled with blood our — ev - ery mo - ment day or night that's —

Je - sus an - swers — prayer Come — bold - ly to a throne of grace and — sins are washed a - way Come — bold - ly to a throne of grace re - spent in fer - vent — prayer We — find the strength to fight the fight when — claim His pro - mise there That — if His love in us a - bide and joic - ing that we may Come — bold - ly to a throne of grace and God has met us there So — now with true be - liev - ing hearts we we in Him — are — one What - e - ver in His name we ask it — bless the Lord — our — King Who — fills our grate - ful hearts with praise and — bow be - fore — His — throne There's not a pro - mise He has made but — sure - ly will be done If — tunes our tongues to sing From —

we may call our own
